AUDIO VOTING KEYPAD QUICK CHART

1	Hear: Instructions (Blue-Square HELP Button) Instructions come on automatically when voting starts or when you stop voting for a period of time. (It is a loop set of instructions.)
2	Press: Red-round SELECT button to exit HELP instructions.
3	Hear: Name of contest. (e.g. Governor – Vote For One)
4	Press: Red-round SELECT button to hear all choices in that contest. (gives list of all candidates in that contest)
5	Hear: Zero choices have been selected.
6	Press: Green-triangle NEXT button to hear choices again. (repeat pressing green triangle NEXT button until you get to the candidate of your choice)
7	Press: Red-round SELECT button to select desired choice.
	Hear: "This contest is fully voted."
	Repeat instructions 3 – 7 until all contests have been voted.
8	Press: Red-round SELECT button to review all selections.
9	Hear: Each contest and your selections.
10	Hear: "Review is Complete."
11	Press: Green-triangle NEXT button and hear "Voting is Complete."
12	Press: Only after listening to ballot instructions, press Red-round SELECT button.
	Only after listening to second set of ballot instructions, press Red-round SELECT button again until voting is complete and you hear bell ring.
If the voter does not want to listen to entire constitutional amendment or proposition, the voter can:
1	Press: Red-round SELECT button to stop reading of amendment or proposition.
2	Press: Green-triangle NEXT button to hear choices. (repeat each choice individually, such as FOR or AGAINST)
3	Press: Red-round SELECT button to select desired choice.
4	Hear: "This contest is fully voted."
	Repeat instructions 1 - 3 until all constitutional amendments or proposition contests have been voted.
If the voter does not want to listen to review, the voter can:
1	Press: Green-triangle NEXT button and hear "Voting is Complete."
2	Press: Only after listening to ballot instructions, press Red-round SELECT button.
	Only after listening to second set of ballot instructions, press Red-round SELECT button again until voting is complete and you hear bell ring.